EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: in claim 9, lines 4-5, "a second over film layer" is changed to --a second cover film layer--.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-27 are allowed.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 1-4 is the inclusion of the limitation of at least a part of the decorative layer is formed through vapor deposition of a metal material of which crystals grow in a deposition direction. It is this limitation found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 5-6, 10-11, 14-15 and 18-19 is the inclusion of the step of a film-forming step of forming a film that has a print face of a predetermined design and a deposition design face formed through vapor deposition of a metal material of which crystals grow in a deposition direction. It is this step found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 7, 12, 16 and 20 is the inclusion of the step of a film-forming step of forming a film having a print face of a predetermined design and forming a lustered piece having a deposition design face formed through vapor deposition of a metal material of which crystals grow in a deposition direction. It is this step found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 8, 13, 17 and 21 is the inclusion of the step of a film-forming step of forming a film that has a deposition design face formed through vapor deposition of a metal material of which crystals grow in a deposition direction. It is this step found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 22, 24 and 26 is the inclusion of the step of a third step of potting a surface on which the decorative layer is formed with a transparent resin. It is this step found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claims 23, 25 and 27 is the inclusion of the step of a third step of potting a surface on which the decorative layer is formed with another resin. It is this step found in each of the claims, as it is claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
